From the Dean

perceive them, and who has God made and called them to be. These categories can be applied to anyone, but those called to leadership often face the scrutiny of these categories more than others. To embrace a role as a public figure in society is often compared metaphorically to living in a “fishbowl.” When one swims in those waters, the assessment of what others perceive someone to be often becomes amplified. Of the many positions in both the Catholic Church and civic society that are most impacted by this fishbowl, it is the Church’s hierarchy.

Bishop Battersby is the newest fish in that bowl as Bishop of the Diocese of La Crosse. Coming to us from Lion Country, the city of Detroit, there is a question being asked of him by many that has nothing to do with his feelings about the Green Bay Packers - Who is this man?

Far more eloquent biographical summaries exist online about his past you can look up so I will spare you the basics. Instead, I want to share my initial impressions working with this new Bishop as a Priest and the Dean for the Eau Claire Deanery.

First, he is a disciple of Jesus Christ, called to shepherd us as an apostle. Some may think this a rather bland assessment of a Bishop. After all, isn’t this what all Bishops are to be? Yes, but from the perspective of a Priest, some of the questions I have of a Bishop are as follows: Does this man want me to work for him, work with him, or minister and administer the Gospel of Christ as sojourners of faith?

If you have spent any time with Bishop Battersby, it is clear that he IS a disciple. He HAS an apostle’s heart. He WANTS us to walk together with him in Christ. Saying nothing ill-willed about our previous Bishops, I have never met a Bishop as attuned to the Holy Spirit as

Bishop Battersby: A Missionary of Hope

There are three ways we can understand a person: How do they understand themselves, how do others

Bishop Battersby. In short, we HAVE a follower and lover of Jesus Christ as our Bishop.

Second, he is a man of patience and discernment. For those who have worked with me and know me well, you know that I like to have fun and be light-hearted, but when serious things arise I can get a little fiery under the sacerdotal collar. I am happy to report that Bishop Battersby is fiery in a different way! He is a man of calm, patience, discernment, and a steady hand. He is a man who administers from prayer and allows Christ to be the calm in an administrative storm even when some of his Deans churn the waters. In short, he leads with prayer, he listens deeply not only to those he speaks to, but the God he loves.

Lastly, he is a man of hope. Sometimes we choose a path set before us and other times God invites us to embrace an unforeseen path that challenges us, calling forth particular gifts for a particular time and particular reasons. Bishop Battersby comes to us at a time when the Holy Spirit inspired Pope Francis to declare a Jubilee Year of Hope. Bishop Battersby did not choose this theme, but his arrival to the Diocese calls him to be a Bishop of Hope. There are many things I could cite that give me the confidence that Bishop Battersby is a Missionary of Hope for the Diocese of La Crosse, but I will summarize those thoughts with one, clear assessment: Bishop Battersby will not allow us to turn to him as our hope, but demand that all of us, himself included, embrace Jesus Christ who is our Hope.

To summarize this reflection in true “Fr. James Speak”: Fasten your seat belts! We have a Bishop who is giving the wheel to the Holy Spirit. And may God inspire Bishop Battersby and all of us to be Missionaries of Hope, Missionaries of Faith, and Missionaries of Love.

Fr. James Kurzynski
Dean, Eau Claire Deanery

As we look to the future, we invite you to walk with us on this journey.

Dear Regis Community,

I hope this letter finds you in good health and enjoying the warmer springtime weather. I write to you as we navigate a time of profound change in the field of education, reaffirming our commitment to the core principles that have guided Regis for generations.

Education is evolving at an unprecedented pace. Advances in technology, new teaching methodologies, and an ever-changing global landscape challenge us to rethink how we equip students for the future. From integrating digital learning tools to emphasizing critical thinking and adaptability, we recognize the necessity of innovation in the classroom. Yet, amid these changes, we remain steadfast in our dedication to the foundational values that define Catholic education: faith, academic excellence, moral integrity, and service to others.

Our mission has always been to nurture the whole person - mind, body, and soul. While we embrace modern advancements, we do so with discernment, ensuring that our schools remain places where students grow not only in knowledge, but also in character and faith. The timeless lessons of compassion, respect, and ethical leadership continue to be at the heart of everything we do.

As we look to the future, we invite you to walk with us on this journey. Each of us plays a part in educating our youth. Your experiences, insights, and support are invaluable as we strive to prepare students for a world that is rapidly transforming while holding fast to the traditions that make Catholic education unique and enduring. Whether through mentorship, engagement, prayer, or financial contribution you play a vital role in strengthening our mission and inspiring the next generation.

Bishop Battersby Visits Regis

It was a blessing to welcome Bishop Gerard Battersby from the Diocese of La Crosse to the Regis campus in February to celebrate Mass with our K-12 students and staff.

This was Bishop Battersby's first visit to Regis Catholic Schools since his Installation Mass in May.

“Catholic education is true to itself when we help our students imagine with Christ, in Christ, and through Christ, allowing our students to imagine a broader and more inclusive back-drop to their dreams. If our young men and women consider Christ and their neighbor first then they will be citizens worthy of any community, fitting disciples who live out the commandment to love God and neighbor in their living and loving. Educating in the faith and forming disciples is one of the fundamental missions of the Church and we must support this mission with both our talents and treasures. Thank you for all that you do in your sacrifices and your commitment to the formation of all the children through Catholic education.”

Regis students help pack meals to help local families, food pantries face food insecurity

ARTICLE BY | Matthew Baughman (Leader-Telegram)
(Reprinted with Permission from Leader-Telegram)

Grades took turns filling up food bags in the gymnasium, with 11th and 12th graders starting the school-wide effort in the morning.

"One in eight families suffer from food insecurity, not knowing if they can afford to put a healthy meal on the table... or if they need that money for health or any other problems they are facing," said Tony Wesner, a high schooler at Regis.

"It is really important for us, because it is part of the Catholic faith to help other people out..." said Dominic Santine, a fellow high schooler at Regis. "And if you are going to do this with your friends, it is really fun too. It is important, and I am just happy to know that we are helping people while we are doing this."

With more work packaging meal bags following their time spent in the gymnasium, Santine said he hopes their involvement in the service project will inspire younger grades. On top of that, both Santine and Wesner said their hope is for the work done throughout the day to impact the community as well.

"It is all about the small things that can lead to big things," said Santine. "And that is exactly what this is: something small that will have big impacts on the community."

As students gathered into Regis' gymnasium, more and more boxes were piled up on the walls that contained food to help against food insecurity in the Eau Claire community.

The service project at Regis was a part of the schools celebration of Catholic Schools Week. Additionally, the opportunity was a way to serve the community and help families and community members who may struggle with affording meals among other expenses.

Regis Principal Bill Giese said, "We see this as a way to work towards fixing that problem, and it gives the kids hands-on experience with serving others which is what our whole Catholic mission is."

The school collaborated with US Hunger, a non-profit organization that helps get food to families in need and organizes meal packing events like the one at Regis. In total, middle and high school students throughout the day managed to package nearly 20,736 meals.

"The school had done this in years past, but it had been awhile," said Giese. "We brought it back this year as a way to serve others. We also asked for donations from part of our families, because it does cost quite a bit to buy all of this food and the materials, but families donated and we had it covered pretty easily. It says a lot about our Regis community."

With another decision made by the school, the student council decided that their impact would be beneficial in supporting the local community. Therefore, all the food packaged on Tuesday would be going towards local food banks as a means to support local families who seek support through these services.

"I am a Regis graduate—now 86 years old—and I continue to cherish the education I received at St. Patrick's Grade School and Regis High School. The strong foundation I built there shaped my future in ways I will always appreciate. After graduating, I pursued a career in nursing and remain deeply grateful to the dedicated nuns at St. Patrick's and Regis, and especially to Msgr. Paul, whose commitment to education helped shape my path. Regis provided me with the knowledge, values, and faith that have guided me through life—as a nurse, a mother, and a grandmother. For that, I will always be indebted."

A Lasting Legacy: Patricia Radel's Extraordinary Gift to Regis Catholic Schools

At 94-years-old, Patricia Radel, a proud alumna of the class of 1949, has made a very generous gift to the Regis Catholic Schools Foundation—one that will shape the future for generations to come.

By choosing to make a substantial legacy contribution during her lifetime, Patricia has had the rare privilege of witnessing the direct impact of her generosity. Her decision is a powerful testament to the joy of giving and a reminder that the most meaningful legacies are those we create while we are still here to see them flourish.

A lifelong believer in Catholic education, Patricia attended Sacred Heart for grades K-8 before graduating from St. Patrick's High School in Eau Claire. She then pursued a career in nursing at St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing, dedicating herself to the care of others. For 31 years, she worked in the operating room at the University of California, San Francisco, where her skill and compassion left a lasting impression on colleagues and patients alike.

Beyond her professional life, Patricia also answered the call to serve her country, spending 22 years in the Army Reserve, including two years of active duty in Germany. A woman of deep faith, unwavering generosity, and steadfast commitment to service, she has spent her life giving to causes that matter most to her—including Regis Catholic Schools.

Now retired and living in Shoreline, Washington, Patricia remains an inspiration. She is living proof that generosity is not just about what we leave behind—it's about the joy of seeing our gifts at work in the present.

"The joy of seeing how my contributions make a difference fills my heart," she shares. Her story reminds us that every act of giving, whether large or small, strengthens the future of Regis Catholic Schools and the students we serve.

While Patricia has been blessed to witness the impact of her gift in her lifetime, we know that many choose to make their most profound contributions through their estate plans. If you have included the Regis Catholic Schools Foundation in your will, we invite you to share your intentions with us. Knowing your wishes allows us to honor your generosity in the way you envision and ensure your legacy lives on in the students who benefit from your kindness.

We are deeply grateful to all who support Regis Catholic Schools—whether through a planned gift, a bequest, or contributions made whenever possible. Every act of generosity strengthens our mission and ensures that future generations receive an education rooted in faith, service, and excellence.

Patricia's story is a testament to the power of giving in one's lifetime, but it is also a reminder that every gift, no matter the timing or size, makes a difference. We invite you to consider how your own legacy might take shape—whether today, tomorrow, or in the years to come.

If you have included Regis Catholic Schools in your will but have not yet notified us, we encourage you to share your plans so we can honor your generosity and ensure your wishes are fulfilled as intended.

As we approach the end of the school year, many students will benefit from the generosity of supporters who have established endowed scholarships. Through a partnership with the Regis Catholic Schools Foundation, donors can create scholarships that reflect their values and the impact they wish to have on future generations of students.

These scholarships, awarded each spring to students in grades K-12, are applied directly to their tuition for the upcoming school year. Donors have the opportunity to customize their scholarship criteria, which may be based on academic achievement, leadership, financial need, community involvement, or other meaningful factors.

We are profoundly grateful to those who have chosen to establish endowed scholarships through the Regis Catholic Schools Foundation. Your commitment is life-changing—opening doors to success, strengthening faith, and shaping the future of our students in lasting ways.

How Endowed Scholarships Work

- ♥ A $12,500 gift provides a $500 annual scholarship in perpetuity.
- ♥ A $25,000 gift funds a $1,000 annual scholarship.
- ♥ As endowed funds grow, the value of each scholarship can increase over time.

In addition to establishing a new scholarship, donors may choose to contribute to one of our many existing endowed scholarships, ensuring that even more students benefit from the generosity of our Regis Catholic Schools family.

If you'd like to learn more about how to establish or contribute to an endowed scholarship, please contact the Regis Catholic Schools Foundation at (715) 830-2273, ext. 1407 or Foundation@RegisCatholicSchools.com.

Girls Basketball

The Lady Ramblers finished the 2024-25 season with a 19-7 record. The team was led by a group of five seniors: Carly Borst, Abby Hawker, Malia Kassing, Jace Jensen, and Cara Olson. The Ramblers battled through a tough schedule early on, which was built on a tremendous amount of competition. This schedule prepared the student-athletes for the tough conference schedule in which they finished the conference season as co-champions with a 10-2 record and the first conference title since 2019.

On the floor, the Ramblers were led by fellow All-Conference First Team performers in Carly Borst and EllaMay Cooper. Izzy Reichert was named to the All-Conference Second Team and Malia Kassing earned Honorable Mention. EllaMay Cooper was unanimously voted as the Conference Player of the Year as a sophomore. EllaMay scored her 1,000th career point on February 25 in the first round playoff game vs. Unity. She also set a school record 44 points vs. Steven's Point on February 13.

The Lady Ramblers then opened the playoffs as a surprisingly low 6-seed. The team instantly took down Unity 82-35 behind 35 points from EllaMay Cooper and 32 points from Carly Borst. However, after splitting with Fall Creek during the regular season, the Ramblers would fall to Fall Creek 57-63 in the regional semi-final.

The program would like to thank the seniors and their families for the effort and support for the program over the past four years. Their commitment and leadership will be missed tremendously but not forgotten.

Once a Rambler, Always a Rambler!

Hockey

Overall Record: 17-6

Middle Border Conference Record: 5-4

The 2024-25 RAM Hockey team was made up of 30 student-athletes from Regis (2), Altoona (21), McDonell (3), and Fall Creek (4). The team returned everyone from last year's team except one senior and added 11 freshmen this season. The team had three seniors, nine juniors, seven sophomores, and 11 freshmen. The coaching staff was led by Head Coach Travis Obrycki and Assistant Coaches Marty Hickey (JV Head Coach) and Mick Podruch.

The team started the season out hot with a trip to the east side of the state where the student-athletes played in the holiday invite at Ozaukee Ice Arena and defeated both Homestead and Cedarburg. The team would continue to win with nine straight victories until losing in overtime against Mound Westonka in the championship game at the River Bend Holiday Classic in Red Wing, Minnesota. This run saw RAM ranked as high as number 3 in the state at Division 2, boasting the highest powerplay percentage (40.4%) and ending the season with the 3rd most points. The season ended in the second round of the section 3 playoffs versus state-ranked (5) River Falls.

Wrestling

The Regis/Altoona (RAW) Boys and Girls Wrestling team had a season of growth. This year, the team graduated three seniors. A large freshman group of 13 included the first female wrestlers for the team. The team was young, but had a lot of heart, determination, and a bright future.

Five boys and two girls qualified for the Division 1 sectional tournament. (Cillian O'Connell, Drey Kren, Jacob Lootans, Jack Wesner, Malachai Zelms, Jaelyn Bowe & Cassidy O'Connell) None of the boys made it to state, but the girls closed out the season competing at state, with Jaelyn Bowe just missing podium and Cassidy O'Connell bringing home some hardware. This marks the first female RAW wrestlers to compete at state and first to place. Another momentous event was junior Jack Wesner clinching his 100th win mid-season.

Overall, the team had a successful season, taking 3rd in the Cloverbelt Conference tournament and 3rd in the overall conference standings. Good luck to graduating seniors Mason, Nash, and Greg. We wish them the best and hope wrestling has helped prepare them for life's adversity. We know our returning wrestlers will rise to the occasion of putting in the work needed for the next season.

Boys Basketball

The Regis Ramblers Boys Basketball team had an impressive season, finishing with the most wins since 2016 at a 19-7 overall record. The team secured a 2nd place finish in the Cloverbelt Conference. The Ramblers received an overall 2 seed in their region for playoffs and a first-round bye. The team beat Neilsville in the second round of playoffs before falling to Onalaska Luther in the Regional Final in a back and forth game 67-70.

The Ramblers were led this year in scoring by junior Blake Risler (21.5 ppg), senior Owen Weisenberger (15.6 ppg), and Freshman DJ Cooper (10.6 ppg). These three also received impressive honors for their play during the season. DJ Cooper received 2nd Team All-Conference honors while Blake and Owen received 1st Team All-Conference honors. Blake was recognized for his outstanding play by being named the Cloverbelt Conference Player of the Year. Owen and Blake both reached an impressive milestone for their careers, surpassing 1,000 points scored.

The Ramblers' five seniors, Owen Weisenberger, Noah Tarras, David Ricciardi, Andrew Bershback, and Harrison Haas, all played a crucial role and helped lead the team to success. Sophomore Joey Brahmer also played a big role in contributing this year.

Regis put together a season full of exciting victories, tough defensive battles, and high-energy performances that made them one of the top teams in the area. Though their playoff run ended earlier than hoped, the Ramblers' impressive season sets a strong foundation for future success.

Dance Team

The Regis Varsity Dance Team saw amazing growth in its 2024-25 season with an increase from a team of three last year to eight dancers this year!

The team started the season off with a Youth Dance Clinic in October, where about 30 elementary and middle school-age students joined to learn and practice skills and then had the opportunity to perform a fun Pom routine at halftime of one of the football games. It was a huge success!

The team's performance season consisted of learning

Pom and Hip Hop routines, which the students performed at two local competitions in December and at Regionals in January. The team earned a fifth place award and a few top ten finishes. Throughout that time, the team also performed both routines at Regis Boys and Girls Basketball games. The team wrapped up its season with another exciting Youth Dance Clinic and a performance with the youth dancers at halftime of a Boys Varsity Basketball game. Regis Dance is already looking forward to next year, hoping to grow more, explore additional dance styles, and add more home game performances to the schedule.

Congratulations to our Regis High School musicians who participated in the Cloverbelt All-Conference Music Festival in Loyal.

Keelin Reid played saxophone in the band and Bernie Falbo, Grace Market, David Ricciardi, and Dominic Santine were members of the choir.

The ensembles rehearsed all day under the direction of Dr. Kirt Saville, Professor Emeritus from BYU, and Dr. Matheus Cruz, Director of Choral Activities at UWSP and performed in an evening concert for an enthusiastic audience.

There is something SPECIAL

about an athlete who competes in a sport that requires excellence at swimming, running and cycling. Most of us will never compete in a triathlon, but we can achieve success by learning from this popular sport.

There is something SIMPLE

within our reach that we can do that even the most conditioned athlete would envy, and that is to prepare well and finish strong. The thrill of winning a race lasts only moments. However, a well-planned estate provides joy and satisfaction for years.

Working with an attorney to plan your estate is probably less expensive than you might think, and the results, fortunately, are more rewarding. We have simple, free tools to help you get started, prepare and complete your plan. For our free, no-obligation tools, call or email us today.

TRIATHLETE PREPARING FOR A RACE	YOU PLANNING YOUR ESTATE

Learning Today, Leading Tomorrow

Regis Catholic Schools is dedicated to educating students of all faiths in a Catholic, Christ-centered environment. We are united by Our Core Values of Living Faith, Accepting Responsibility, Promoting Teamwork, Achieving Excellence, and Inspiring Leadership.

Last June, "the ANSWER" Eucharistic Rally at the La Crosse Center was a powerful and transformative encounter with Christ in the Eucharist. But our journey as disciples of Jesus doesn't end there—because Jesus is Still the Answer today, tomorrow, and forever.

On Saturday, August 9, 2025, we have another incredible opportunity to pause, reflect and be renewed in His presence. The 2025 Eucharistic Rally will take place at the Pablo Center in Eau Claire, Wisconsin, bringing together Catholics from across the Diocese for a day of faith, fellowship and encounter like no other.
